Probable Starting Pitchers

VMI Coby Cowgill, Fr., RHP (3-0, 4.61) vs. VT Manny Martir, Jr., RHP (1-1, 5.27)

VMI, ranked 29th in the nation, plays its second in-state opponent Wednesday, taking on Virginia Tech in the first of two meetings this season against the Hokies.

The Keydets are coming off their sixth-straight weekend series win, improving to 4-2 in Big South play with two victories over Charleston Southern. In the series, the Keydets allowed just six runs, the fewest VMI had surrendered in a three-game Big South series in five seasons.

The Keydet starting rotation took center stage in the series, combining to allow just five runs in 23 innings (1.96 ERA.) Sophomore Adam Lopez now leads the Big South in strikeouts with 44 in his 34.2 innings, as the Keydets are 6-0 in his starts. Junior Sam Roberts lost VMI's first 1-0 contest in nearly seven years, allowing the one run on four hits in 7.1 innings against the Bucs. Redshirt sophomore Jason Farley then hurled his first career complete game to give VMI the series win, scattering five hits and allowing just two runs while striking out six.

At 20-4, the Keydets are off to their best start in school history, two games ahead of the 18-6 mark the 2006 squad put up through 24 games. Leading the way has been an offense that ranks among the top 10 in the nation in batting average (.362) and in the top five in home runs (44) and slugging percentage (.603).

The Hokies, meanwhile, are coming off their second ACC series win of the year, having won two of three at home against Wake Forest. VT scored a 7-0 win on Friday night before winning the rubber game 2-1 on Saturday after falling 5-0 in the first game of a doubleheader. Earlier in ACC play, VT took two of three at home against Maryland, while also being swept at #7 Clemson two weeks ago.

The match-up is the 169th all-time meeting between the two schools in a rivalry that dates back to 1897. VMI last defeated the Hokies on April 30, 2008 in an 8-7 contest played at Gray-Minor Stadium. The Keydets' last win in Blacksburg came back on April 27, 2005 (6-2), which stood as VMI's last win at an ACC park before defeating Maryland, 7-6, in 10 innings earlier this season.

Two right-handers are set to square off Tuesday, with VMI freshman Coby Cowgill (3-0, 4.61 ERA) opposing VT junior Manny Martir. Cowgill pitched a complete game at The Citadel two weeks ago, when he allowed just one unearned run on four hits. Martir is coming off a seven-inning shutout performance last week against Liberty, when he allowed just four hits.

Fans can listen to the contest both online at www.VMIKeydets.com and on Lexington's WREL 1450 AM.

Baseball Ranked 29th in Collegiate Baseball Poll:

After splitting four games, VMI fell one spot in the Collegiate Baseball Poll to 29th, it was announced Monday, March 29. In addition, the Keydets retained three votes in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches' Poll and again received votes in the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association Poll.

Over the previous week, VMI fell 17-13 to JMU and won two of three at home against Charleston Southern. The Keydets took game one 13-3, before suffering a two-hit shutout at the hands of Tyler Thornburg, who was coming off a complete-game win over then-#7 Florida. The Keydets bounced back to win the rubber game of the series, 7-3.

The ranking marks the first time in program history that the team has been ranked in three consecutive weeks. VMI also received votes in each of the remaining polls for the third week in a row, marking the first time the program had done so as well.

Pitching Pushes VMI Past CSU:

VMI won its sixth consecutive weekend series with a fantastic effort from its starting rotation. Sophomore Adam Lopez, junior Sam Roberts and redshirt-sophomore accounted for 23 innings against CSU, as VMI won two of three while allowing just six total runs, the fewest runs VMI had allowed in a three-game Big South series in five seasons.

The threesome combined for a 1.96 ERA in the series, as Lopez continues to lead the Big South in strikeouts with 44 in his 34.2 innings, with the Keydets now standing at 6-0 in his starts. Roberts lost VMI's first 1-0 contest in nearly seven years, allowing the one run on four hits in 7.1 innings against the Bucs. Farley, meanwhile, hurled his first career complete game to give VMI the series win, scattering five hits and allowing just two runs while striking out six.

Baseball Climbs to 28th in Collegiate Baseball Poll:

Following a week that saw VMI sweep Southern Conference leaders The Citadel and win its conference-opening series at High Point, the Keydets moved up two spots in the Collegiate Baseball Poll to attain its highest-ever national ranking at 28th on Monday, March 22. VMI also gained five votes in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches' Poll and received votes in the National College Baseball Writers Association Poll.

VMI earned just the third national ranking in program history the week before, when Collegiate Baseball listed the Keydets 30th in the country, just as they did in consecutive weeks back in March 2007. VMI then took both games at The Citadel, rallying in the ninth inning to win 4-3 on Tuesday before pounding out 18 hits in a 12-1 victory Wednesday.

The Keydets then opened Big South play by taking on High Point, winning Friday night's game 5-3 thanks to another ninth-inning rally, before taking the series with a 5-2 win on Saturday. Going for the sweep on Sunday, the Keydets fell behind 11-2 in the second inning but erased the deficit to take a 14-13 lead in the top of the ninth, before the Panthers rallied for a walk-off, 15-14 victory.

VMI received six votes in the Coaches' Poll on March 22, coming in 39th in voting conducted among a panel of 31 head coaches at Division I institutions. The team also received votes in the Writers' Poll for the sixth time overall and the second straight week on that same day.

Roberts Included on Brooks Wallace Award Watch List:

Junior Sam Roberts was recognized among the top shortstops in the country when he was named to the Brooks Wallace Award Watch List, presented annually to the nation's top player at the position by the College Baseball Foundation, on Tuesday, March 23.

Roberts (Prince George, Va./Prince George) entered last week among the top 20 in the country with 32 RBIs and 28 runs scored while hitting from the leadoff spot VMI. He not only leads the Big South in RBIs, total bases and walks, but is also hitting .371 with five doubles, two triples, seven home runs and a .470 on-base percentage. He ranks second on the team with eight stolen bases while also going 3-1 in the weekend pitching rotation. He has 12 games with multiple hits this season and 11 contests with multiple RBIs, including back-to-back outings with five runs driven in apiece.

VMI Opens Big South Play With Series Win at High Point:

The Keydets got strong pitching in games one and two and nearly turned in a win for the ages in game three as VMI opened Big South action with a thrilling series at High Point on March 19-21.

Adam Lopez pitched 8.1 innings and Graham Sullivan hit a two-run, game-winning home run to give VMI a 5-4 win on opening night in the series, before Jason Farley pitched a career-best eight innings, allowing just two runs as the Keydets won the series with a 5-2 win on Saturday.

On Sunday, the Keydets fell behind 11-2 in the second inning, but chipped away at the lead throughout the game, thanks in large part to Alan Watts' career-long 4.2 innings of relief, allowing just a single run. A five-run rally in the ninth allowed VMI to take a 14-13 lead, with Cory Spangenberg tying the game with a two-run single then scoring the go-ahead run on Tanner Biagini's double. VMI then got the first two outs quickly, but could not stop a High Point rally, as pinch-hitter Robbie Gilles delivered a two-run single to allow the Panthers to salvage game three.

Keydets Turn Heads Nationally:

For the third time in program history, the VMI Baseball team earned a national ranking, being tabbed 30th in the country by Collegiate Baseball on Monday, March 15. The Keydets were also listed as Receiving Votes in two additional polls, the USA Today/ESPN Coaches' Poll and the NCBWA Writers' Poll.

At 16-1, the Keydets got off to the best start in program history thanks to four consecutive weekend sweeps.

The Keydets' previous national rankings came three years ago, when VMI began the year 17-4. In 2007, VMI was ranked 30th in back-to-back polls by Collegiate Baseball after defeating 10th-ranked Auburn, 7-3. The Keydets also received votes four different times in the National Collegiate Baseball Writers' Poll (NCBWA), the most recent coming in the 2008 preseason, while the program had never before received votes in the Coaches' Poll until this season.

Cowgill Pitches Keydets Past The Citadel:

An early mistake and a 25-minute rain delay weren't enough to hold down freshman Coby Cowgill on March 17, as the right-hander hurled VMI's first complete game in nearly a year, beating The Citadel, 12-1.

Cowgill (Norfolk, Va./Maury) fell behind 1-0 in the first inning on an unearned run, but never allowed multiple base runners in an inning again. He retired 15 of 17 batters at one point and struck out nine batters for the second time this season.

Cowgill threw VMI's first complete game since Chris Henderson did so against UNC Asheville last March 21.

Keydets Use Small Ball to Sweep Bulldogs:

VMI's power numbers have been staggering this season, with the team on pace to blow away the program's single-season home runs and slugging percentage records.

Playing at The Citadel's Riley Park, the Keydets went away from the long ball and instead pounded out 26 singles in the two-game sweep of the Bulldogs. In the two games, VMI had just two extra-base hits, a third-inning double by Jacob Morley in game one, and a ninth-inning home run by Graham Sullivan in game two.

VMI Sweeps The Citadel In Charleston:

VMI and The Citadel is a rivalry that has existed across several sports for decades, but the two sides had not met on the diamond since 2003 until this season.

In the two-game series played in Charleston, VMI won two very different ballgames in claiming 4-3 and 12-1 victories. Along with a 2-1 win over the Bulldogs in the 2003 SoCon Tournament, VMI has now won three in a row in the series for the first time since the 1989 campaign.

In game one, the Keydets fell behind 2-0 early, but fought back to tie the game, then take the lead on a ninth-inning single by Sam Roberts. Freshman John Garrett pitched a scoreless ninth, claiming his first career save and giving VMI a 4-0 record in one-run games this season.

In game two, another freshman pitcher, Coby Cowgill, pitched VMI to victory, throwing a complete game four-hitter, allowing just an unearned run in the first inning.

Ballard's Week Earns National Acclaim:

VMI senior Jordan Ballard (Troy, Va./Monticello), enjoyed the most impressive week of his career in early March, slugging six home runs in five games to become VMI's first-ever Louisville Slugger National Player of the Week.

The first baseman hit .571 on the week with a .611 on-base percentage while slugging 1.929 in the five games. In addition, Ballard had 14 RBIs in 14 at bats, driving in at least four runs in three different contests.

The honors kept coming for Ballard, as later in the week he also earned Big South Player of the Week, ECAC Co-Player of the Week and CollegeBaseballInsider.com Southeast Player of the Week while also being named to the College Baseball Foundation's National All-Star Lineup.

Spangenberg Keeps Rolling:

Freshman Cory Spangenberg hasn't needed much time to get acclimated to the rigors of Division I baseball. Along with several other Keydet freshmen, Spangenberg has been a large part of VMI's early-season success, starting each game this season in the middle infield and lead-

Roberts On A Tear:

Junior Sam Roberts had an impressive week-end against Maryland Eastern Shore, leaving his mark both at the plate and on the mound. Roberts was 2 for 5 with a career-high five RBIs in Friday's win against the Hawks, before going 3 for 3 with two home runs and five RBIs again on Saturday. On Sunday, his focus shifted to the mound, as he allowed just one hit in seven innings, striking out six batters in an 8-4 win.

Roberts entered last week leading the Big South with 32 RBIs and was tied for the lead with 59 total bases and 16 walks. He also ranked second in the league with a .738 slugging percentage, 28 runs and seven home runs.

Getting Started:

A strength of the Keydets' 20-4 start this year has been the performance of the team's starting pitchers. In 24 combined starts, sophomore Adam Lopez, freshman Coby Cowgill, junior Sam Roberts, redshirt sophomore Jason Farley and redshirt junior Chris Duty are 12-2 with a 4.03 ERA, having struck out 109 batters in 125 innings while walking just 38.

Ikenberry Hits Another Milestone:

In VMI's 11-1 win over La Salle on March 14, head coach Marlin Ikenberry scored his 175th career victory.

Already the leader in career coaching wins at VMI, Ikenberry now sits at 181-171 entering this week's play. He is one of just two coaches with at least five seasons coached at VMI to post a winning percentage over .500, currently at .514.

Spreading The Wealth:

On the mound this season, the Keydets have seemingly gotten contributions from everyone. That can be seen in the pitching staff's wins, as VMI's 20 victories have gone to nine different pitchers.

Adam Lopez leads the way with four wins, while starters Sam Roberts, Jason Farley and Coby Cowgill, along with reliever Michael Devine, each have three victories. Relievers Jeremy Brown, Chris Duty, John Garrett and Travis Thomas have each scored a win as well. In all, the Keydet bullpen is now 8-2 with six saves and a combined 3.98 ERA, striking out 89 and walking 29 in 83.2 innings.

Chicks Dig The Long Ball:

A large part of VMI's unprecedented 20-4 start has been the team's offensive prowess. In just 24 games, VMI has already hit 44 home runs, coming from 12 different players, while allowing just seven.

Leading the way is senior Jordan Ballard with 11. Sam Roberts has seven round trippers, while Graham Sullivan has six. Cory Spangenberg has five in his freshman season, and Tanner Biagini is just behind with four. Alex Haisuka and Jacob Morley, along with freshmen Rob Dickinson and Erickson Keeton, have each hit two out of the park, while Steele Myers, George Piccirilli and Chase Worthington have each contributed a single home run this season.

VMI's school record stands at 56, accomplished in 40 games back in 1985, while last season's team came up just shy with 55 round-trippers in 53 contests.

Keydets Continue Streak at Maryland:

VMI kept its win streak rolling with an extra-inning affair at Maryland on March 2. The 7-6 win, VMI's second by that same score in three days, pushed the Keydets to 7-0 for the first time in school history.

After a strong, career-long six-inning performance from starting pitcher Jason Farley, the fireworks began in the late innings. VMI moved in front, 5-2, with a four-run eighth inning, only to give the lead back in the bottom of the frame. The same was true in the ninth after the visitors took a 6-5 lead, only to see the Terps rally to take the game to extras.

VMI then turned the game over to the capable arm of freshman John Garrett, who retired all six batters he faced to lock up his first collegiate win. That came after VMI scored its third unearned run of the game, as Justin Topping scored on Sam Roberts' groundout in the 11th.

The win was VMI's first over an ACC opponent since knocking off Virginia Tech, 8-7, on April 30, 2008. The last time VMI defeated an ACC team on the road also came against the Hokies back on April 27, 2005 a 6-2 victory in Blacksburg.

It is also believed to be VMI's first win over the Terps since the 1948 season.

Morley Has Big Weekend Against Lafayette:

Sophomore Jacob Morley enjoyed a stand-out weekend against Lafayette, reaching base in 11 of his 13 plate appearances (.846 OBP) while hitting .778.

In game one of the series, was 2 for 3 with a three-run home run and four RBIs, while in game two, Morley was 3 for 3 with two doubles,

Keydets Sweep Patriot League

Foes:

VMI opened its 2010 season with a bang, sweeping two of the top teams in the Patriot League in Bucknell and Lafayette.

The Keydets began the year with by taking down the Bison, the defending co-regular season champs in the league. VMI followed that up with a blanking of the Leopards, who last season, beat the Bison in the tournament to finish as the Runners-Up in the championship.

Middle Relief Excels Opening Weekend:

VMI opened its 2010 campaign with an impressive sweep of Bucknell. Playing a large role in the team's success was the standout performances of the Keydet middle relief corps.

The five Keydets that made middle relief appearances on the weekend combined to allow three runs in 12.1 innings, good enough for a 2.19 ERA, striking out 11 and walking just two.

Chris Duty and Jeremy Brown each picked up wins in their relief efforts, as Duty worked 3.2 innings while allowing one run in game two after Brown gave up two runs in 3.1 innings in game one. Travis Thomas, Jason Farley and Andrew Deal each had scoreless efforts in their season debuts, as they combined to allow just one base runner in their 5.1 innings.

Freshmen Bats Pace Keydets Past Bucknell:

Several freshmen made a lasting impression in their VMI debuts on opening weekend, as VMI swept co-regular season Patriot League Champs Bucknell.

In a series moved to Prince George HS due to snow and ice at Gray-Minor Stadium, VMI freshmen Cory Spangenberg, Rob Dickinson and Erickson Keeton combined to hit 12 for 22 (.545) with two doubles, four home runs and nine RBIs.

Spangenberg was 4 for 4 in the opener, collecting two doubles, a home run and three RBIs as VMI won, 9-4. Also in that game, Keeton went 2 for 2 with two home runs and three RBIs, but injured himself in his second at bat. He was then replaced by Dickinson, who proceeded to go 3 for 4 with a home run and two runs scored in game two of the series, a 6-5 VMI win.

VMI Earns Preseason Accolades:

VMI seniors Jordan Ballard and Tanner Biagini and junior Sam Roberts were selected to SEBaseball's Preseason All-Big South squads, as the website unveiled its season preview articles on Sunday.

Ballard was tabbed a First Team selection at first base, while Biagini was named to the Second Team at third base. Roberts, meanwhile, was listed as the Second Team Utility player.

Keydets Face Tough Schedule:

In 2010, VMI is set to face a tough schedule, one that includes two teams that began the season in the top 15 in the national rankings.

The Keydets are slated to play two games against Virginia, who began the season ranked third nationally after its first appearance in Omaha, and three more against Coastal Carolina, who began the season ranked 12th. The Cavs and Chants are favored to win the ACC and Big South, respectively, as is James Madison in the CAA.

In addition, VMI swept three strong mid-major squads early in the year. VMI opened the season against two of the top teams in the Patriot League, taking down defending co-regular season champs Bucknell and tournament runners-up Lafayette. VMI then swept a two-game series against SoCon leaders The Citadel in a series that marked the program's first match-up against a SoCon foe since VMI left the league prior to the 2003-04 season.

Keydets Sign Three Early:

Head coach Marlin Ikenberry and his coaching staff announced the early signings of three players to the VMI Baseball Class of 2014. Each of the three hail from the Commonwealth, and the class consists of Connor Bach (Clifton, Va./Centreville), Berkley Hawkins (Richmond, Va./Trinity Episcopal) and Campbell Henkel (Richmond, Va./ St. Christopher's).

Follow the Keydets On The Web:

The online home of VMI baseball can be found at www.VMIKeydets.com. Along with pre-game and post-game stories, fans can also enjoy live audio and video broadcasts of selected games, along with features, photos, game notes and e-mail alerts.

Recent additions to the site include the 2010 VMI Baseball Media Guide and Rounding The Bases, a blog that senior Tanner Biagini will contribute to chronicle the 2010 season.

Evans Named Volunteer Assistant:

Kwan Evans, a 2007 graduate of VCU, has joined the VMI Baseball coaching staff for the 2010 campaign.

A four-year letterman with the Rams as an outfielder, Evans helped the Rams to a pair of CAA Conference Championships and NCAA appearances, playing in the 2005 Coral Gables Regional and the 2007 Myrtle Beach Regional. He was also a 2005 CAA All-Rookie team selection following a freshman year during which he hit .312 with 15 doubles and 13 stolen bases.
