VMI Jason Farley, R-So., LHP (4-1, 2.03) vs. LU Keegan Linza, Jr., RHP (7-0, 3.56)

VMI Sam Roberts, Jr., RHP (5-1, 3.86) vs. LU Steven Evans, Jr., LHP (4-1, 3.19)

Fresh off its first-ever win over a top-ranked opponent, No. 26 VMI returns to Big South Conference play this weekend, playing at Liberty in its final road series of the season. Friday night's opener is set for a 7 p.m. first pitch, while Saturday's game is a 4 p.m. start. The finale gets underway at 1 p.m. Sunday.

The Keydets earned their highest-ranking in program history Monday, coming in 26th in the Collegiate Baseball poll while receiving 22 votes in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches' Poll, placing them tied for 31st.

Two nights later, the Keydets more than backed up those lofty rankings, knocking off a Virginia squad ranked No. 1 in the National Collegiate Baseball Writers' Association (NCBWA) Poll, 12-3. The win marked the highest-ranked opponent VMI had ever defeated, surpassing a 5-2 win over the third-ranked Wahoos on April 3, 2007 in Virginia's last visit to Gray-Minor Stadium. The loss was the Cavaliers' first in 10 mid-week games this season and was the worst loss the team had suffered in nearly two years.

Next up is a showdown against the Keydets' Blue Ridge Mountain neighbors. Liberty has won each of its last two Big South series, taking two of three at home against High Point before sweeping Radford on the road. Even with a 5-3 loss to Elon Tuesday, the Flames have won eight of their last 10 outings since dropping two of three at UNC Asheville three weeks ago.

The Flames entered this season picked second in the Big South Preseason Poll, garnering a first-place vote. VMI was selected sixth.

Friday night's opener is expected to pit Keydet sophomore righty Adam Lopez (5-0, 3.32 ERA) against Flame senior left-hander Shawn Teufel (6-1, 1.86 ERA). Saturday's matinee matches VMI redshirt sophomore southpaw Jason Farley (4-1, 2.03 ERA) versus Liberty junior right-hander Keegan Linza (7-0, 3.56 ERA). Sunday's finale features a pair of juniors, as Keydet right-hander Sam Roberts (5-1, 3.86 ERA) against Flame lefty Steven Evans (4-1, 3.19 ERA).

Fans can watch each contest of the weekend series on the Big South Network, available at www.BigSouthSports.com. An audio broadcast will also be available through the VMI Sports Network at www.VMIKeydets.com and on Lexington's Fox Sports Radio 1450 AM.

Keydets Climb to 26th for Highest-Ever Ranking:

The top five hitters in the lineup went 10 for 21 with 10 RBIs as No. 26 VMI defeated No. 1 Virginia, 12-3, in front of a record crowd of 1,463 fans at Gray-Minor Stadium Wednesday, April 14. The win was VMI's first-ever over a top-ranked opponent, while the loss for Virginia was the team's first mid-week setback in 10 games this season.

In a showdown pitting two nationally-ranked teams for the first-time ever at VMI, the Keydets responded each time that Virginia cracked the scoreboard. The Cavs jumped on top with a run in the first, but VMI answered with three in the bottom of the inning to take the lead for good. Virginia cut the deficit to 3-2 in the fourth, but VMI posted two in the bottom-half to maintain the advantage. In the sixth, a John Barr home run capped the visitors' scoring, before VMI sent 10 men to the plate in a six-run sixth to put the game out of reach.

Sam Roberts led an offensive attack that battered the Cavaliers' pitching staff for the most runs it had allowed all season. From the leadoff spot, Roberts went 2 for 3 with four RBIs, thanks to a two-run home in the fourth and a two-run single in the sixth. Jordan Ballard drove in three, while Graham Sullivan and Tanner Biagini each had a pair of knocks, including an RBI double in the sixth.

The game marked the first time Virginia had played at Gray-Minor Stadium since falling, 5-2, to VMI on April 3, 2007. That game held program record's as the highest-ranked team the program had defeated (#3) and the largest crowd in facility history (1,265) until both marks were broken with Wednesday's win.

The loss was Virginia's worst setback since falling 10-0 to Miami on April 27, 2008.

Keydets Climb to 26th for Highest-Ever Ranking:

VMI won twice against in-state foes and scored its second Big South road sweep in as many weekends to earn its highest-ever national ranking, as Collegiate Baseball tabbed the Keydets 26th in its weekly poll on Monday, April 12.

With its series win over Gardner-Webb, VMI has now won each of its eight weekend series in 2010, including six sweeps. In fact, VMI stands 23-2 in weekend games this season, suffering one-run losses to High Point (15-14) and Charleston Southern (1-0) in conference play.

In addition, the Keydets received 22 votes in the April 12 ESPN/USA Today Coaches' Poll, besting its previous week's total of eight that ranked as the most the program had ever received. The 22 votes tied VMI with North Carolina for the 31st-highest total in this week's poll. By comparison, UC Irvine totaled 40 votes to claim 25th in the poll. This week also marked the fifth consecutive week VMI was listed as receiving votes in the Writers' Poll.

Just Win, Baby:

As a famous coach once said, "You play to win the game." And so far in 2010, no one has done that more than VMI.

Entering this weekend, VMI's 29 wins are tied for the most nationally with Coastal Carolina. Arizona State, whose 28-2 mark entering the week included a win over Division II Grand Canyon. The total puts VMI just ahead of the 28 wins posted by Arizona State, Georgia Tech and Arkansas entering Friday's play.

As a program, the 29 wins are tied for the third-most in school history, just five behind the school-record total of 34 posted in 2007.

Devine Named Big South Co-Pitcher of the Week:

Sophomore Michael Devine earned his sixth and seventh save of the season while allowing just one hit in two appearances to earn The Crons Brand Co-Pitcher of the Week honors from the Big South Conference, as announced Monday, April 12 by the league office.

Devine (Cheswick, Pa./Springdale) began his week by working a scoreless ninth in VMI's 3-2 win over JMU Wednesday. In his one inning, Devine struck out two of the three batters that he retired, allowing a single hit. Two nights later, Devine recorded his third two-out save in a week, allowing just one base runner while striking out a pair in VMI's 7-5 win over Gardner-Webb.

The right-hander earned a save in four consecutive appearances, allowing just two hits and striking out nine in seven innings during the run. On the year, Devine is 3-1 with seven saves, holding opponents to a .194 batting average, striking out 21 in 19.1 innings. His seven saves are tied for the second-most in a single-season in VMI history.

VMI HR Record Falls:

With the way that balls have been flying out of stadiums for the Keydets this season, it was only a matter of time before the school's single-season home run record fell. It took the team just 32 games, as Jordan Ballard's second round-tripper of the day was the team's 57th of the season, breaking the school mark set in 40 games back in 1985.

Ballard is one of 14 Keydets to hit a homer this season, and leads the Big South with his 14 on the year. Freshman Cory Spangenberg has nine this season, followed by eight apiece from Graham Sullivan and Sam Roberts, as the top four hitters in the VMI lineup have combined for 39 in just 34 games.

Perhaps the most impressive stat related to home runs for VMI this season is that while the offense has hit 61 home runs, the pitching staff has surrendered just 10 in 34 games, ranking among the national leaders in that category.

Ballard Ties Weddle for Career HR Lead:

With a pair of home runs against Gardner-Webb on April 10, senior Jordan Ballard tied Greg Weddle '86 for the most career home runs in school history with 37.

The senior slugger has been in the zone lately at the plate, collecting base hits in 20 of the past 21 contests. During that run, he is hitting .420 with 11 doubles, nine home runs, 34 RBIs and an .852 slugging percentage. In addition, he is currently on a career-best 11-game hitting streak, hitting .432 with 17 RBIs, leading VMI to a 10-1 mark.

The Big South's leader in home runs (14), and slugging percentage (.750)Ballard also ranks among the top 10 with 102 total bases (T-2nd), 43 RBIs (T-3rd), 35 runs (T-8th) and 12 doubles (T-8th).

The Troy, Va. native ranks second in career slugging percentage (.591), third in career total bases (342), sixth in career doubles (42) and seventh in career batting average (.326) at VMI.

Spangenberg Keeps Rolling:

Freshman Cory Spangenberg hasn't needed much time to get acclimated to the rigors of Division I baseball. Along with several other Keydet freshmen, Spangenberg has been a large part of VMI's early-season success, starting each game this season in the middle infield and leading the team with 20 stolen bases.

The Clarks Summit, Pa. native has hits in 29 of VMI's 34 games this season, and saw his 18-game hitting streak end vs. Charleston Southern, the longest streak for VMI this season. In addition, he has 18 stolen bases in the past 28 games, and overall has been caught just three times in 23 attempts.

In the three-game series against Gardner-Webb, Spangenberg hit .643 with a double, two triples and three home runs, driving in eight runs and scoring nine while slugging 1.643. He became the second Keydet this season to hit home runs in back-to-back at bats, hitting nearly identical shots down the right-field line in game one. He went 2 for 4 with three runs in game two, then 4 for 6 with three RBIs in the finale.

He entered the week tied for the Big South lead with 60 hits and 46 runs scored while also ranking in the top five in seven other categories, including total bases (102-T-2nd), triples (3-T-2nd), stolen bases (20-T-3rd), home runs (9-T-3rd), slugging percentage (.699-4th) and batting average (.411-T-4th) and RBIs (39-T-5th).

Down Early? No Problem!:

Early deficits have not been an issue for the Keydets in their impressive start to the 2010 season.

VMI has allowed its opponent to score the first run of the game in 21 of its 34 games this season, and have a 18-3 record when doing so. The results don't change much in Big South play, as opponents have taken an early lead in six league games, only to see VMI come back to score a 5-1 record in those contests.

The issue has been escaping the first inning for VMI, as the Keydets have allowed opponents to score 39 of their 157 total runs in the first. VMI sports an 8.21 ERA in the 34 first innings it has played this year, with opponents hitting .361. It is the only inning that opponents are hitting over .283 against the Keydets this year.

Down Late? No Problem!:

Conversely, the Keydets have also had a knack for coming back late in games this season.

VMI has played 10 games this season that they did not have a lead going into the ninth inning. The Keydets are an impressive 5-5 in those games, rallying to win games against Lafayette (2/28), Maryland (3/2), The Citadel (3/16), High Point (3/19) and UNC Asheville (4/3). The Keydets also rallied in their final at bat against La Salle (3/13), when Cory Spangenberg hit a walk-off home run in the seventh inning.

Keydets Take Care of Business at UNC Asheville:

It took three come-from-behind efforts, but VMI scored its first-ever sweep of UNC Asheville on Easter Weekend.

In game one, the Keydets fell behind 1-0 in the first, then rallied with a five-run third to take the lead. The Bulldogs rallied to tie the game, but Graham Sullivan's two-run triple in the eighth provided the difference in a 7-5 win.

Sullivan struck again in game two, hitting a two-run home run to tie the game in the third inning, before providing an insurance run in the ninth of a 7-2 win. VMI rallied for four runs in the ninth to break open what was a one-run game entering the final frame.

Game three provided VMI's most thrilling comeback of the season. Bulldog hurler Justin Schumer shutout the Keydets for eight innings, but couldn't hold down the VMI bats in the ninth. A leadoff double by Cory Spangenberg was followed by a Sullivan RBI single to tie the game. Tanner Biagini then doubled to center field, plating Sullivan for an improbable, 2-1 win to sweep the series.

In Saturday's doubleheader, VMI allowed just three runs, while scoring six of its nine runs in the two ninth innings.

Sullivan's Bat Stays Red Hot:

Junior Graham Sullivan's offensive production over the past few weeks has been unmatched, and another reason for VMI's torrid start.

He is currently on a career-best 11-game hitting streak, during which he has hit .420 with 17 RBIs, four doubles and two home runs.

Over the past 18 games, Sullivan has had multiple hits in 13 outings, with at least one hit in 16 of the 18. He has also driven in at least one run in 15 of the 18 contests, and has driven in at multiple runs in nine of those outings.

And he has performed when the pressure was on all year. He has collected several game-clinching hits this season, including a ninth-inning home run at High Point, a walk-off single against Lafayette, a two-run triple in the eighth inning at UNC Asheville and a two-run double in the seventh against JMU.

He entered the week leading the Big South with 58 hits and ranked second with both 45 RBIs and 100 total bases. He also comes in third with a .709 slugging percentage, fourth with 14 doubles and a .411 batting average and tied for fifth with 35 runs scored and two triples.

Farley Impresses In League Play:

When a pitcher comes back from surgery, you never know how his performance will be affected. Keydet redshirt sophomore Jason Farley has come back better than ever after missing the 2009 season due to injury.

Farley has made six starts for the Keydets in 2010, making five quality starts, including gems in each of his four Big South starts. On the year, Farley has gone 4-1 with a 2.03 ERA, allowing opponents to hit just .211, with those last two statistics ranking him third in the Big South Conference.

In his four Big South outings, Farley has allowed seven earned runs in 30.2 innings (2.05 ERA). He began the run by allowing two runs in eight innings at High Point against an offense ranked in the top 10 nationally. He then hurled a complete game, allowing two runs to Charleston Southern, before going 7.1 innings at UNC Asheville, surrendering just a single run in a no decision, leaving the game with a 1-0 deficit.

That lack of run production has been a common theme for the left-hander, as VMI has averaged just 5.5 runs per outing in Farley's starts, compared to an average of 10.1 runs per game for the team's other starters.

Getting Started:

A strength of the Keydets' 29-5 start this year has been the performance of the team's starting pitchers. In 34 combined starts, the Keydet starters are 17-3 with a 3.97 ERA, having struck out 142 batters in 170 innings while walking just 56.

Jason Farley leads the way with a 2.41 ERA in his six starts, during which he has made five quality starts, consisting of at least six innings pitched with no more than three earned runs allowed. He has also averaged seven innings per start, two more than the staff averages as a whole. Adam Lopez follows with a 3.32 ERA, as VMI is 8-0 in his starts this season. Sam Roberts rounds out the weekend staff, posting a 3.86 ERA in his eight starts, with VMI going 6-2 in those games.

Ikenberry Hits Another Milestone:

In VMI's 11-1 win over La Salle on March 14, head coach Marlin Ikenberry scored his 175th career victory.

Already the leader in career coaching wins at VMI, Ikenberry now sits at 190-172. He is one of just two coaches with at least five seasons coached at VMI to post a winning percentage over .500, currently at .525.

Spreading The Wealth:

On the mound this season, the Keydets have seemingly gotten contributions from everyone. That can be seen in the pitching staff's wins, as VMI's 28 victories have gone to nine different pitchers.

Weekend starters Adam Lopez and Sam Roberts lead the way with five wins apiece, while Jason Farley and John Garrett each have four victories in 2010. Coby Cowgill and Michael Devine have each scored three wins this year, followed by Jeremy Brown and Chris Duty, who each have two. Travis Thomas also has a win in his freshman campaign. In all, the Keydet bullpen is now 12-2 with 10 saves and a combined 3.81 ERA, striking out 128 and walking 42 in 127.2 innings.

Pitching Pushes VMI Past CSU:

VMI won its sixth consecutive weekend series with a fantastic effort from its starting rotation. Sophomore Adam Lopez, junior Sam Roberts and redshirt-sophomore accounted for 23 innings against CSU, as VMI won two of three while allowing just six total runs, the fewest runs VMI had allowed in a three-game Big South series in five seasons.

The threesome combined for a 1.96 ERA in the series, as the Keydets are now 7-0 in games that Lopez has started. Roberts lost VMI's first 1-0 contest in nearly seven years, allowing the one run on four hits in 7.1 innings against the Bucs. Farley, meanwhile, hurled his first career complete game to give VMI the series win, scattering five hits and allowing just two runs while striking out six.

Baseball Climbs to 28th in Collegiate Baseball Poll:

Following a week that saw VMI sweep Southern Conference leaders The Citadel and win its conference-opening series at High Point, the Keydets moved up two spots in the Collegiate Baseball Poll to attain its highest-ever national ranking at 28th on Monday, March 22. VMI also gained five votes in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches' Poll and received votes in the National College Baseball Writers Association Poll.

VMI earned just the third national ranking in program history the week before, when Collegiate Baseball listed the Keydets 30th in the country, just as they did in consecutive weeks back in March 2007. VMI then took both games at The Citadel, rallying in the ninth inning to win 4-3 on Tuesday before pounding out 18 hits in a 12-1 victory Wednesday.

The Keydets then opened Big South play by taking on High Point, winning Friday night's game 5-3 thanks to another ninth-inning rally, before taking the series with a 5-2 win on Saturday. Going for the sweep on Sunday, the Keydets fell behind 11-2 in the second inning but erased the deficit to take a 14-13 lead in the top of the ninth, before the Panthers rallied for a walk-off, 15-14 victory.

VMI received six votes in the Coaches' Poll on March 22, coming in 39th in voting conducted among a panel of 31 head coaches at Division I institutions. The team also received votes in the Writers' Poll for the sixth time overall and the second straight week on that same day.

Roberts Included on Brooks Wallace Award Watch List:

Junior Sam Roberts was recognized among the top shortstops in the country when he was named to the Brooks Wallace Award Watch List, presented annually to the nation's top player at the position by the College Baseball Foundation, on Tuesday, March 23.

At the plate, Roberts (Prince George, Va./Prince George) entered the week ranked among the top 10 in the Big South with 27 walks (2nd), 43 RBIs (T-3rd), 41 runs (4th), two triples (T-5th), eight home runs (T-5th), 83 total bases (T-5th), a .615 slugging percentage (9th) and a .457 on-base percentage. He has started every game this season either on the mound or at shortstop and has reached base safely in 32 of VMI's 34 games this season.

VMI Opens Big South Play With Series Win at High Point:

The Keydets got strong pitching in games one and two and nearly turned in a win for the ages in game three as VMI opened Big South action with a thrilling series at High Point on March 19-21.

Adam Lopez pitched 8.1 innings and Graham Sullivan hit a two-run, game-winning home run to give VMI a 5-4 win on opening night in the series, before Jason Farley pitched a career-best eight innings, allowing just two runs as the Keydets won the series with a 5-2 win on Saturday.

On Sunday, the Keydets fell behind 11-2 in the second inning, but chipped away at the lead throughout the game, thanks in large part to Alan Watts' career-long 4.2 innings of relief, allowing just a single run. A five-run rally in the ninth allowed VMI to take a 14-13 lead, with Cory Spangenberg tying the game with a two-run single then scoring the go-ahead run on Tanner Biagini's double. VMI then got the first two outs quickly, but could not stop a High Point rally, as pinch-hitter Robbie Gilles delivered a two-run single to allow the Panthers to salvage game three.

Keydets Turn Heads Nationally:

For the third time in program history, the VMI Baseball team earned a national ranking, being tabbed 30th in the country by Collegiate Baseball on Monday, March 15. The Keydets were also listed as Receiving Votes in two additional polls, the USA Today/ESPN Coaches' Poll and the NCBWA Writers' Poll.

At 16-1, the Keydets got off to the best start in program history thanks to four consecutive weekend sweeps.

The Keydets' previous national rankings came three years ago, when VMI began the year 17-4. In 2007, VMI was ranked 30th in back-to-back polls by Collegiate Baseball after defeating 10th-ranked Auburn, 7-3. The Keydets also received votes four different times in the National Collegiate Baseball Writers' Poll (NCBWA), the most recent coming in the 2008 preseason, while the program had never before received votes in the Coaches' Poll until this season.

Cowgill Pitches Keydets Past The Citadel:

An early mistake and a 25-minute rain delay weren't enough to hold down freshman Coby Cowgill on March 17, as the right-hander hurled VMI's first complete game in nearly a year, beating The Citadel, 12-1.

Cowgill (Norfolk, Va./Maury) fell behind 1-0 in the first inning on an unearned run, but never allowed multiple base runners in an inning again. He retired 15 of 17 batters at one point and struck out nine batters for the second time this season.

Cowgill threw VMI's first complete game since Chris Henderson did so against UNC Asheville last March 21.

Keydets Use Small Ball to Sweep Bulldogs:

VMI's power numbers have been staggering this season, with the team on pace to blow away the program's single-season home runs and slugging percentage records.

Playing at The Citadel's Riley Park, the Keydets went away from the long ball and instead pounded out 26 singles in the two-game sweep of the Bulldogs. In the two games, VMI had just two extra-base hits, a third-inning double by Jacob Morley in game one, and a ninth-inning home run by Graham Sullivan in game two.

VMI Sweeps The Citadel In Charleston:

VMI and The Citadel is a rivalry that has existed across several sports for decades, but the two sides had not met on the diamond since 2003 until this season.

In the two-game series played in Charleston, VMI won two very different ball-games in claiming 4-3 and 12-1 victories. Along with a 2-1 win over the Bulldogs in the 2003 SoCon Tournament, VMI has now won three in a row in the series for the first time since the 1989 campaign.

In game one, the Keydets fell behind 2-0 early, but fought back to tie the game, then take the lead on a ninth-inning single by Sam Roberts. Freshman John Garrett pitched a scoreless ninth, claiming his first career save and giving VMI a 4-0 record in one-run games this season.

In game two, another freshman pitcher, Coby Cowgill, pitched VMI to victory, throwing a complete game four-hitter, allowing just an unearned run in the first inning.

Ballard's Week Earns National Acclaim:

VMI senior Jordan Ballard (Troy, Va./Monticello), enjoyed the most impressive week of his career in early March, slugging six home runs in five games to become VMI's first-ever Louisville Slugger National Player of the Week.

The first baseman hit .571 on the week with a .611 on-base percentage while slugging 1.929 in the five games. In addition, Ballard had 14 RBIs in 14 at bats, driving in at least four runs in three different contests.

The honors kept coming for Ballard, as later in the week he also earned Big South Player of the Week, ECAC Co-Player of the Week and CollegeBaseballInsider.com Southeast Player of the Week while also being named to the College Baseball Foundation's National All-Star Lineup.

Roberts On A Tear:

Junior Sam Roberts had an impressive weekend against Maryland Eastern Shore, leaving his mark both at the plate and on the mound. Roberts was 2 for 5 with a career-high five RBIs in Friday's win against the Hawks, before going 3 for 3 with two home runs and five RBIs again on Saturday. On Sunday, his focus shifted to the mound, as he allowed just one hit in seven innings, striking out six batters in an 8-4 win.

Keydets Continue Streak at Maryland:

VMI kept its win streak rolling with an extra-inning affair at Maryland on March 2. The 7-6 win, VMI's second by that same score in three days, pushed the Keydets to 7-0 for the first time in school history.

After a strong, career-long six-inning performance from starting pitcher Jason Farley, the fireworks began in the late innings. VMI moved in front, 5-2, with a four-run eighth inning, only to give the lead back in the bottom of the frame. The same was true in the ninth after the visitors took a 6-5 lead, only to see the Terps rally to take the game to extras.

VMI then turned the game over to the capable arm of freshman John Garrett, who retired all six batters he faced to lock up his first collegiate win. That came after VMI scored its third unearned run of the game, as Justin Topping scored on Sam Roberts' groundout in the 11th.

The win was VMI's first over an ACC opponent since knocking off Virginia Tech, 8-7, on April 30, 2008. The last time VMI defeated an ACC team on the road also came against the Hokies back on April 27, 2005 a 6-2 victory in Blacksburg.

It is also believed to be VMI's first win over the Terps since the 1948 season.

Morley Has Big Weekend Against Lafayette:

Sophomore Jacob Morley enjoyed a stand-out weekend against Lafayette, reaching base in 11 of his 13 plate appearances (.846 OBP) while hitting .778.

In game one of the series, was 2 for 3 with a three-run home run and four RBIs, while in game two, Morley was 3 for 3 with two doubles, two walks, three runs scored and two RBIs. The Annandale, Va. native wrapped up his series by going 2 for 3, driving in a pair of runs.

Keydets Sweep Patriot League Foes:

VMI opened its 2010 season with a bang, sweeping two of the top teams in the Patriot League in Bucknell and Lafayette.

The Keydets began the year with by taking down the Bison, the defending co-regular season champs in the league. VMI followed that up with a blanking of the Leopards, who last season, beat the Bison in the tournament to finish as the Runners-Up in the championship.
